

January 2010

JANUARY

Happy New Year ☽ Happy New Year ☽ Happy New Year

Welcome Back Everyone!

As a "New" Year begins, let's all resolve to...

- be in class on Sunday
- be in the classroom "before" 9 AM
- go to Mass every week
- go to Confession as a family at least once a month
- pray & give thanks every day
- be a living example of our faith

Attached is a copy of January 2010, At Home With Our Faith. In addition there is a special attachment entitled, A Parent's 10 Commandments for Passing on the Faith.

As a parent & grandparent, I found I learned more about God through my own participation in my child's class. Parents, Grandparents, Aunts & Uncles are all welcome to help in the classroom. Please ask your child's Catechist if they need any help...passing out supplies, cutting out crafts, reading the Scripture story. Just by being in the classroom you may learn a new way to talk to your child about God and their faith.

If you know a family with children who are not in Faith Formation classes, please invite them to visit our classes at SJTW.

Everyone is always welcome!

At Home With Our Faith

- Quick Takes: Daily Meditations (with Scripture) for Busy Parents
- Catholic 101: What is Anointing of the Sick?
- Living Faith: The good enough family
- The whole world in his hands: Fifth in our series on deepening your family's participation at Mass

On the web

- Our new parenting blog & parent resources
- Discussion questions for this issue

Visit homefaith.com

Project Keep Warm

Our 6th Grade Service Project collected 180 blankets, 246 hat & scarf sets, 27 hats & 24 pairs of gloves. What a Great Job helping those less fortunate!

5th Grade "Parents"

You're invited to your child's Open House on January 24 in their classroom from 9-10.